Description

The course aims at giving students basic information on the Czech grammatical system (most of the cases and tenses are introduced). The communicative aspect is emphasized, students are supposed to communicate in various situations (introducing oneself, asking about direction, shopping, restaurant, daily routine, likes and dislikes, weather etc.) using everyday vocabulary. Various linguistic skills should be developed in balance: grammatical knowledge, comprehension, speaking, and writing.

Objectives

- to be able to communicate in various situations of everyday life
- to acquire a basic image of a grammatical and conceptual system of Czech

Attendance Policy

Mandatory attendance is a primary requirement for a responsible learning experience. Please consider that every absence has the potential to lower the final grade, as it may affect the “attendance and participation” portion of your grade or result in missing key information that could appear on quizzes or exams. In addition, professors take attendance at the beginning of the class. If you are more than 10 minutes late, professors mark one hour of absence from class. Onsite visits count as regular class hours. A no-show to
